

EC₁₂OSYSTEM

EC₁₂OLOGY LAB

is now searching for FIELD TECHNICIANS May - August 2023

Project

Our team is forecasting carbon across Newfoundland's boreal forests under multiple disturbances.

This summer we are measuring carbon stocks of representative forest stands in Gros Morne and Terra Nova National Parks.

Details

Housing and accomodation provided!

- Dates: 16 weeks full time, start in May, with June and July in the field
- Locations: Gros Morne and Terra Nova National parks
- Pay: $16–18/h, depending on qualifications

Job description

Help us carry out this season's field work!

- Travel throughout the province's National Parks
- Accurately easure and record vegetation/soil metrics
- Will be required to spend long hours outside in any weather!
- Process samples in field and in lab

Qualifications

- Willing to learn and work in a team
- Able to conduct field work in all conditions
- Capable of carrying equipment across rough terrain

Preferred skills

- Field and lab experience
- Valid driver's license
- Experience with navigational tools
- Familiar with Newfoundland plants

To apply

Please send your cover letter, resume, unofficial transcript, and reference information to emmerson.r.wilson@gmail.com

Apply here!

